

Maroos

Shipping & Forwarding Company

Offshore Support

Maroos Marine supports different phases of offshore exploration, construction and production, including anchor handling for derrick lay barges as well as pipe joint transportation. Barges ranging in size from 150 - 280 feet are used to carry pipe and offshore structures such as jackets and topsides. AHTS and Utility vessels transport supplies and personnel necessary to sustain drilling and production activities.